4.2 "Common Elements" means all portions of the common areas other than the Units and Limited Common Elements.

4.3 "Limited Common Elements" shall be:

(i) the exterior portion of the walls of the buildings including the framing of the exterior walls, brick and other exterior materials such as siding and stucco. The definition excludes the interior walls and materials affixed to any wall and also does not include any pipes, wiring or other material included within the frame;

(ii) fascia and soffits and other items affixed to the exterior as original construction, but not including any light fixtures contained in the soffits;

(iii) the roof and supporting roof structure including shingles but not including any wiring, pipe or duct work inside the roof structure;

(iv) sidewalks, concrete driveways and other exterior improvements such as sod and landscaping that are appurtenant to an Owner's Unit.

(v) the front yard and improvements in the front yard such as fencing, if any, in the front yard of each Unit; and

(vi) designated parking spaces, if any, and any other common elements which are shown on the plat as a Common Element.

4.4 "Unit" means all portions of the building structure not described as a Limited Common Element. The Unit Owner shall be deemed to own the condensing unit and the fan coil unit and hot water heater serving that Unit notwithstanding the fact that such condensing unit, fan coil unit and, in some cases, the hot water heater lie outside the Unit walls.

4.5 Owner's Maintenance Responsibility of Unit; Association Right of Approval. For purposes of maintenance, repair, alteration and remodeling, an Owner shall be deemed to own all of the elements described in 4.4 above. The Owner shall do no act nor any work that will impair the structural soundness or integrity of the Unit or Building or impair any easement or hereditament, nor shall Owner make any changes to those elements that are visible such as doors, windows, or garage doors, without written approval of the Association attesting to the compatibility of the proposed improvement or repair with the overall architectural design.

4.6 Association's Maintenance, Operation, Repair and Alterations Responsibility; Access by Association. The Association shall be responsible for the maintenance, operation and repair of the Common and Limited Common Elements. In order to carryout this repair and maintenance responsibility the Association is hereby granted access at anytime to perform routine maintenance, perform inspections or resolve emergencies. All Owners and their invitees must deliver to the Association or its management company, and keep current, a key to the Unit. The Association shall not be liable for any damages in the event access to a Unit must be forced by reason of the Owners failure to deliver an operating key.

4.7 Ambiguity Resolved by Board. If a reasonable dispute arises regarding interpretation of this document as to whether the repair, maintenance or replacement of any item in or on a building structure is an Owners responsibility or the Associations responsibility then the Board of Directors shall have the right, duty and authority to resolve said dispute. The decision of the Board shall be kept in the minutes of any Board meeting and shall thereafter be uniformly applied to all similar situations. All such decisions shall be placed on the agenda of the Associations annual meeting for approval by a majority of Owners in attendance at said meeting.

4.8 Party Wall Agreement.

4.8.1 Ownership of Party Wall: Reciprocal Easement. The Owner shall possess, in fee simple, that portion of the party wall, if any, lying within the platted Unit on which his Unit sits. No Owner shall commit or omit any act, the result of which is an infringement of the adjoining Unit Owner's rights in the party wall absent written agreement between such Owners. In the event that any portion of any structure, including any party" wall, shall protrude over an adjoining Unit, such structure shall not be deemed to be an encroachment upon the adjoining Unit, nor shall any action be maintained for the removal of or for damage because of such protrusion. It shall be deemed that said Owner has granted perpetual easements to the adjoining Owner for continuing maintenance and use of any such protrusion. The foregoing shall apply to any replacements of any party wall if the same are constructed substantially in conformity with the original party wall construction.

4.8.2 Destruction. If a party wall is destroyed or damaged by any casualty, the Owners of Units abutting such party wall shall jointly restore it substantially to its original form, and they shall contribute equally to the cost of restoration thereof without prejudice, however, to the right of any such Owner to call for a larger contribution from the other Owner under any rules of law regarding liability for negligent or willful acts or omissions. Destruction or damage to any party wall shall not cause the termination of any rights of any of the adjoining Owners thereto, and such Owners will retain those rights herein set forth concerning any reconstruction or replacement of a party wall. Owners of Units abutting such a party wall are obligated hereby to restore it in its substantially original condition. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, an Owner who by his negligent or, willful act causes the party wall to be damaged shall bear the whole cost of repairing such damage and shall diligently prosecute all such repairs and reconstruction. If such Owner shall fail to do so, then any other Owner of a Unit abutting such party wall may do so at the sole cost and expense of the Owner causing such damage. The right of any Owner to contribution from any other Owner under this section shall be appurtenant to the land and shall pass to such Owner's successors in title.

Such lien may be enforced by the foreclosure of the defaulting Owner's Unit subsequent to the recording of a notice or claim thereof by the Association in like manner as a mechanics or materialmen's lien on real property. In any such proceedings the Owner shall be required to pay the costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred for filing the lien and, in the event of foreclosure proceedings, the additional costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred. The owner of the Unit being foreclosed shall be required to pay to the Association the yearly assessment for the Unit during the period of foreclosure, and the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Association shall have the power to purchase a Unit at foreclosure or other legal sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, vote the votes appurtenant to, convey or otherwise deal with the same. (F) Monthly Dues and Assessments Collectible on Sale. Upon the sale or conveyance of a Unit, all unpaid monthly dues or assessments, including interest and costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in collection, shall be first paid out of the sales price or by the purchaser in preference of any other assessments or charges of whatever nature, except the following:

However, any such grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the management agent or Board of Directors of the Association, as the case may be, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments against the grantor due the Association and such grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the Unit conveyed be subject to a Lien for, any unpaid assessments made by the Association against the grantor in excess of the amount therein set forth.

(G) Mortgaging a Unit; Priority; Mortgage Subject to Declaration; Mortgagee in Title-Unpaid Assessments. An Owner shall have the right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his Unit and the interests appurtenant thereto, but the lien created thereby shall be subject to the terms and provisions of this Declaration, and any mortgagee or other lienholder who acquires a Unit through judicial foreclosure, public sale or other means shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Declaration except as specifically excepted herefrom. Where the holder of a first mortgage of record or other purchaser obtains title to the Unit as a result of foreclosure of the first mortgage or deed in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer of title shall not be liable for the monthly dues or assessments chargeable to such Unit which became due prior to acquisition of title to such Unit by such acquirer.

(H) Non-Exemption from Payment; Board Responsibility to Collect; Interest, Costs, and Attorney Fees; Suit; Notice to Mortgagee. The amount of monthly dues and assessments assessed against each Unit shall be the personal and individual debt of the Owner thereof. No Owner may exempt himself from this liability by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his Unit. The Board of Directors shall have the responsibility to take prompt action to collect any unpaid dues or assessments which remain unpaid more than fifteen (15) days from the due date for payment thereof. In the event of a default by an Owner in the payment of dues or an assessment, such Owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%), or such higher rate (provided the same shall not be usurious) as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, per annum on the amount of the dues or assessment from the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred to collect such dues or assessments together with late charges as provided by the Bylaws of the Association. Suit to recover a money judgment for obligations may be instigated in Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, and may be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing same additionally, in the event that the mortgage on a Unit should so provide, a default in the payment of an obligation shall be a default in such mortgage and if required by the mortgagee by written notice to the Association, the Board of Directors shall give notice of any default in payment of an assessment that is more than 60 days delinquent to the mortgagee. Any entity purchasing a Unit in a foreclosure or other liquidation sale shall be liable for dues as early as the law allows, however, if the purchaser is the Mortgagee of said Unit the Mortgagee's liability for dues shall be limited to six months of the unpaid regularly budgeted dues or charges accrued before the acquisition of title.

5.7 Rules and Regulations; Fines; Enforcement. The Board of Directors is empowered to adopt Rules and Regulations together with the authority to impose fines, all of which shall be binding on all Owners as if fully set forth herein.

(A) Adoption of Rules. Written notice of any proposed adoption, modification or change of a Rule or a fine shall be given to the members. Said written notice shall provide at least five days notice of the meeting wherein the Board proposes to adopt the Rule or fine and afford any Owner the opportunity to be heard in that regard. At the conclusion of the meeting the Board may adopt the Rule or fine as published or make modifications prior to final decision.

(B) Due Process. In order to afford due process to each Owner before any punitive action may be finally imposed by the Board of Directors, each Owner shall have the right of a hearing before the Board of Directors, en banc for the purpose of avoiding or mitigating any penalty, fine or punitive action. The Owner shall be afforded not less than 10 days written notice of the hearing. At the hearing both the Association and the owner may produce evidence and present witnesses. The Board of Directors shall promptly resolve the dispute and announce its decision, which in such instances shall be final as to all matters.

(C) Notice. New Owners shall be afforded copies of the Rules upon notice to the Association of the change of title.

5.8 Eminent Domain; Substantial Destruction. If part of a Common Area is acquired by eminent domain, the award must be paid to the Association. The Association shall represent the Unit Owners in any condemnation proceedings or in negotiations, settlements and agreements with the condemning authority for acquisition of the Common Elements, or part thereof. Each Unit Owner appoints the Association as attorney-in-fact for such purposes.

In the event of condemnation or substantial destruction of a material portion of the project the Unit Owners and Mortgagees representing at least 51% of the voting interest of the Units may elect to liquidate the improvements and allocate the insurance proceeds or condemnation award to the Owners and Mortgagees thereof as their may interests appear. Notice of any meeting whereupon liquidation is a consideration must be given to all Owners and Mortgagees at least 60 days prior to the date set for consideration of this action.

5.9 Association Rights to Use and To Grant Easements. The Association, in its sole discretion, may from time to time grant easements and rights of way on, across, under and over the Common Elements to any municipal corporation or public utility company, or other entity providing water, sewer, gas, electricity, telephone, cable television, or other similar service to the real estate development.

5.10 Prohibition of Employment or Other Pecuniary Gain.
